

E-mail not displaying correctly? Try our mobile version.

22 October 2010

MedTech Forum Special

Doors of opportunity open for medtech |1|

The build up to last week's MedTech Forum in Brussels was frenetic for the Eucomed team and left us all exhausted for the weekend. The new week brings time for reflection and some satisfaction at a job well done. Read more...

Share this story:

European Commission makes a clear statement at Eucomed's MedTech Forum |2|

Regulatory affairs turned into Business Affairs at Eucomed's MedTech forum in Brussels last week. At what was to turn out to be one of the highlight sessions at the Forum, Ms. Jacqueline Minor, the Director responsible for Medical Devices in the European Commission [...] Read more...

Share this story:

Interacting with the EU institutions - interactive training session on Public Affairs |4|

More than 50 Eucomed members on 12 October 2010 discussed with EU representatives on how to appropriately engage with the three main European institutions, followed by a workshop on how to develop tailor-made lobbying strategies. Read more...

Share this story:

Latest Eucomed blog posts

Fall leaves are dropping and hopes of reform too? |1|

Events of interest

22/11/10 & 30/11/10

Clinical studies & medical devices

Want to read more?

Tell a friend

Forward this e-mail newsletter to a friend.

My preferences

Modify your details and preferences

John Wilkinson - Chief Executive

A year on and the mood music in Washington is very different. My return to this beautiful city, where fall colours are emerging in their full majesty, has seen a very different atmosphere from a year ago when the Obama health reforms were on their way and universal coverage seemed a very real probability. Read more...

Share this story:

Can we move global harmonisation to the next level? |3|

John Wilkinson - Chief Executive

Proponents of greater regulatory harmonisation and cooperation will have been heartened by FDA chief Peggy Hamburg's comments at the Advamed 2010 conference on Wednesday 20 October. She was quick to acknowledge that, in a changing world with vastly increased trade, the FDA could not continue to operate on an old-fashioned model designed for a time [...] Read more...

Share this story:

News

Medical technology industry applauds the strengthened Late Payment Directive in Europe |1|

Eucomed, European medical technology industry association, applauds the strengthened Late Payment Directive that the European Parliament adopted today with a large majority, confirming the compromise found between the Council and the European Parliament in September 2010. Read more...

Share this story:

Commissioner Dalli's vision for European healthcare |2|

Commissioner Dalli, at the Coalition for Health, Ethics and Society's annual lecture, elaborated on his vision for European healthcare. The event took place on 18 October in Brussels and was organised in collaboration with the European Policy Centre. Read more...

Share this story:

A Funny Thing Happened on My Way to the Eucomed Forum |3|

Norbert Sparrow - medtechinsider
Executive Editor

In a strange symmetry, last week began and ended on the subject of retirement. On Monday, I was in Lyon, France, to visit nearby companies for a series of articles. I had planned on taking the TGV on Tuesday afternoon to be in Brussels in time for the start of the Eucomed MedTech Forum. Read more...

Share this story:

Industry advocates a safe, smart and sustainable system in upcoming EU medical technology legislation |4|

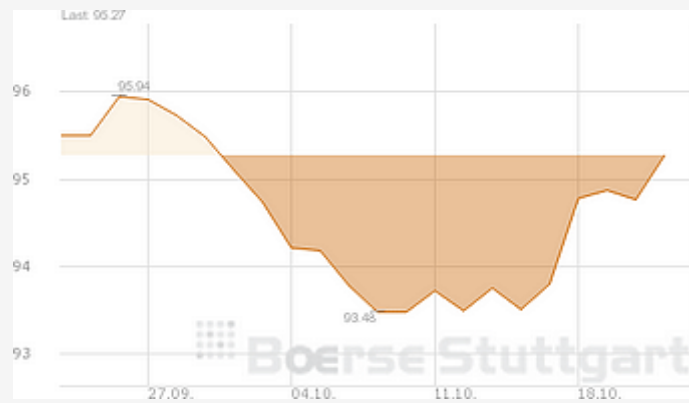

Eucomed, the European medical technology industry association, recognises the need to adapt and improve EU legislation in order to guarantee access to safe, life-enhancing medical care for patients and consumers while sustaining the industry's drive for research and innovation. Read more...

Share this story:

Industry pulse

Director Communications: Ingmar de Gooijer | E-Communications Coordinator: Thomas Lindemans

If you no longer wish to receive this email please unsubscribe.